

Disciplining Ourselves for Evangelism

❖ If you could change your gifts or personality to be more effective in evangelism, what would you change?

The Discipline of Evangelism:

1. Requires Prayer (Colossians 4:3-6)
2. Requires Preparation (1 Peter 3:15)
3. Requires Presentation (Matthew 5:13-16)

The Styles (Giftings) of Evangelism:

1. Direct Style
2. Intellectual Style
3. Testimonial Style
4. Relational Style
5. Invitational Style
6. Serving Style

Getting ready for next week's class (see page 33 in your Proclaim book):

- Group Discussion (optional)
- Homework:
 - PREPARE – Read the article “Evangelism is a Discipline” on page 85.
 - PRAY – Continue to pray for those in your life who don't know Christ. Ask God to open a door for His Word (Colossians 4:3-6).
 - PROCLAIM – Become familiar with the “Two Ways to Live” tract you received last Sunday. Look for opportunity to invite someone to church using one of our “You're Invited” cards.
