

²⁸Zadok, a young man mighty in valor, and twenty-two commanders from his own fathers' house.

¹²For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:12

²³For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life, 24to preserve you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the adulteress. 25 Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes;

Proverbs 6:23-25

³The eyes of the Lord are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good. Proverbs 15:3

²³Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds, ²⁴for riches do not last forever; and does a crown endure to all generations?

Proverbs 27:23-24

What do we mean when we say that a picture is "admirable"? We certainly don't mean that it is admired (that's as may be) for bad work is admired by thousands and good work may be ignored. Nor that it "deserves" admiration in the sense in which a candidate "deserves" a high mark from the examiners—i.e., that a human being will have suffered injustice if it is not awarded.

The sense in which the picture "deserves" or "demands" admiration is rather this; that admiration is the correct, adequate or appropriate, response to it, that, if paid, admiration will not be "thrown away," and that if we do not admire we shall be stupid, insensible, and great losers, we shall have missed something.

5... God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us... God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:5, 5:8
